STATE OF NEBRASKA,
SECRETARY'S OFFICE,
Lincoln, Neb., Dec. 10, 1880.

To His Excellency Albinus Nance, Governor of the State of Nebraska:

SIR; Pursuant to the requirements of law, I have the honor to submit herewith the biennial Report of this Department, embracing such information as the statute requires.

I have the honor to be,

Very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

S. J. ALEXANDER,

Secretary of State.

REPORT.

INTRODUCTORY.

Appended hereto will be found numerous tables and other matter similarly arranged, which will give to your Excellency, in a general way, the amount of business that has been performed by this branch of the Executive Department in the discharge of its public duties, for the past two years.

Coming from the Executive office, I find that there have been attested and registered by the Secretary of State four hundred and fifty-six commissions of notaries public, twenty-nine commissions of commissioners of deeds, nine proclamations, eighty-five commissions of a general character, sixty-one warrants, eighty-six requisitions for fugitives from justice, one pardon, eighty pardons under the "Good Time Act," of convicts confined in the Nebraska State Penitentiary. I have also, in the capacity of Secretary of State and ex-officio member of the public boards, attested one hundred and eighty-nine patents for school lands and four thousand five hundred and thirty-six leases for school land leases.

Since the adoption of the new Constitution, in the year 1875, the duties devolving upon the office of the Secretary of State have been very materially increased at each successive administration. This fact will be made more apparent to your Excellency by a careful consideration of the work embraced in this report.

In addition to the duties devolving upon me as Secretary of State, I have acted in conjunction with several other state officers as a member of the several public boards of the state, namely, the Board of Public Lands and Buildings, the Board of Educational Lands and Funds, the Board of Purchase of Supplies, the Board of Audit of Printing Accounts, and the Board for the Certification of Bonds. The duties assigned to each are found to be continually increasing, and necessarily occupy considerable time, demanding to a great extent a careful and personal attention. The labors of the last two mentioned boards will in a measure appear as a part of the work of this report. The labors of the other named boards previously mentioned will be given to your Excellency through other official sources.

GENERAL STATUTES.

At the date of my induction into office, I received from the hands of my predecessor the General Statutes of 1873, to the number of twenty-four hundred copies. Of this number there remain at present on hand and under my charge in the neighborhood of two thousand copies. During the past two years numerous requisitions have been made upon the office by the several county clerks to be supplied with extra or additional copies of these books.

The law regulating the distribution of this class of law-books made it the duty of the Secretary of State to place in the hands of each county clerk a sufficient number of these books, to be distributed as follows, allowing one for each officer, namely:

The judge of the county court, county clerk, superintendent of public instruction, clerk of the district court, treasurer, sheriff, coroner, the board of county commissioners, the mayor of each city and town in the state, and each justice of the peace. The records of the office show this to have been done at the time the statutes were published. It will also be seen from the above that the number of county officers properly entitled to receive a copy is ten, aside from the justices of the peace, whose number in the distribution of these books is regulated by allowing two copies to every organized precinct in a county, there being that number of justices allowed by law to each precinct.

The demand upon the office embodied in these requisitions is for an additional supply from the above enumeration. These requests from the counties are fair and reasonable, and should be heeded. I would therefore most earnestly recommend to your Excellency that such legislation be secured at the forthcoming session as will enable this office to comply with the same.

SESSION LAWS.

Under the provision of the General Statutes, as found on pages 455 and 456, the county clerks are given authority to make requisition upon the Secretary of State for a specified number of copies of the Session Laws sufficient to place one copy in the hands of the following officers, namely: "County judge, each member of the board of county commissioners, the sheriff, treasurer, county surveyor, the prosecuting attorney, each notary public, each justice of the peace, each constable, each road supervisor and precinct assessor in said county." He is also allowed to reserve one for himself, and give two each of the laws to every member of the Legislature who was a member of the Legislative Assembly at which the laws were enacted. To meet this specified distribution under the existing law, will require the publication of an edition of not less than ten thousand copies.

An edition of this magnitude I believe to be extravagant, when the fact is taken into consideration that the life of a session law is only for a few years' duration, being supplemented either by a compilation or revision of the laws. I would therefore recommend, in this matter, that the present law governing the distribution of these books be so amended as to strike from the list the offices as enumerated above of road supervisor, assessor, and notary public, and that the revenue and road laws applicable to these officers be published in pamphlet form, for their government. By this, an edition of seven or eight thousand copies will be sufficient to meet the demand.

I would also beg leave to inform your Excellency, that the edition of Session Laws of 1877 is about exhausted, less than one hundred copies remaining on hand at the date of this report. The attention of the Legislature should be called to this matter, and such legislation be asked for as will meet the demands and best interests of the public.

SENATE AND HOUSE JOURNALS.

There are at present in the state sixty-three organized counties. Allowing fourteen copies each of the Senate and House Journals to the same will require 882 copies. In addition to this there should be published at least 700 extra copies, for distribution to the members and officers of the present and forthcoming sessions and to other state, territorial, and public libraries, and for a reserve to be kept on hand for future use.

DISTRIBUTION OF LAWS AND PUBLIC DOCUMENTS.

The Legislature, at its fifteenth session, directed the publication of 1,500 copies of the Senate Journals, 2,000 copies of the House Journals, 5,000 copies of the Session Laws of 1879. Of these, this office has distributed to those entitled to receive the same, 4,500 copies of the Session Laws, 1,200 copies of the Senate Journals, 1,500 copies of the House Journals. In the distribution of these laws and documents, I found the number of House and Senate Journals ordered published ample to meet the demands made upon the office by requisition and otherwise. In the matter of the Session Laws I found the supply as placed in my hands inadequate to meet the demand as made upon me, compelling me to make such distribution of these books as seemed most equitable. I hope to be relieved of this responsibility in the future by a more liberal publication, and, as has been previously suggested in this report, by the enlargement of the number of copies ordered published from an edition of 5,000 copies to that of 8,000 copies.

CENSUS TABLES.

I submit herewith a comparative statement showing the population of this state by counties, from the year 1855 down to and including the year 1880.

The enumerations as found in these columns under the years 1860, 1870, and 1880 were made by the general government. The returns reported in the other columns have been compiled by this office from data furnished by the county clerks of their respective counties under the provision of chapter 7 of the General Statutes of 1873, entitled "Census."

PUBLIC PRINTING.

The Board for the auditing of printing accounts is composed of the Secretary of State, Auditor Public Accounts, and State Treasurer, and has met at such times during the past two years as public necessity would seem to require.

The Board on the 5th day of November, A.D. 1880, prepared for publication such proposals as the law on this subject would seem to contemplate under the several heads of work mentioned in the law on this subject, these proposals were published thirty consecutive days in the Omaha Republican, Lincoln Globe, and Nebraska City Press, and also five weeks in the Hastings Nebraskian, a weekly paper published at Hastings, Nebraska. These proposals set forth that the Board would sit on December 7, 1880, for the purpose of receiving bids for furnishing the printing for the State under the several classes as enumerated therein for the period of two years from the fourth Tuesday in December, next thereafter.

Accordingly, on the seventh day of December, the Board met in pursuance of the above notice, and bids were received from H. D. Hathaway, Webster Eaton, Lincoln, Nebraska, and from Henry Gibson, Omaha, Nebraska. Upon examination of these bids in detail, under the several classes of printing, namely, from Class One to Class Seven, it was ascertained that the following named bidders were the lowest on each class respectively, and the contracts were awarded accordingly.

Class One	H. D. Hathaway.
Class Two	Henry Gibson.
Class Three	H. D. Hathaway.
Class Four	Henry Gibson.
Class Five	H. D. Hathaway.
Class Six	H. D. Hathaway.
Class Seven	Henry Gibson.

I have appended herewith itemized table showing the bids received upon each class of the public printing for the forthcoming two years, and also that comparison can be made on the prices paid under the old contract with those under the new, a table showing by classes the contract prices therewith.

NOTARIES PUBLIC.

Appended herewith will be found a list, by counties, of the names of all persons holding commissions as Notaries Public whose notice of qualification as such officer has reached this office. Considerable care has been taken in their preparation, and it is to be hoped they will prove of interest.

Under the present law governing the appointment of this class of officers in our State, their number is limited to three for each one thousand inhabitants in each county, to be estimated upon the basis of six persons to every vote cast for the office of Governor at the state election, and it being further provided that not less than twelve notaries public may be appointed and commissioned in any county of this state.

The quota of these officers in some of the counties has reached a very large number, and in many instances is found sufficiently large to meet the applications of all who seek to receive a commission, while on the other hand many counties being restricted by the limit, cannot obtain commissions enough to transact conveniently the business arising in their vicinities, leading me to suggest to your Excellency the propriety of recommending to the Legislature an amendment to the existing law that will do away with the limit now placed upon the number of appointments each county may receive. This would then allow the Governor to appoint and commission such number of persons to the office of notary public, in each of the respective counties of this state, as he shall deem necessary.

Section 5, of Chapter 49, entitled "Notaries Public," provides that each notary public, before performing any of the duties of his office, shall provide himself with an official seal, on which shall be engraved the words "Notarial Seal," the name of the county for which he was appointed and commissioned, and the word "Nebraska," and in addition, at his option, his name, or the initial letters of his name.

In this connection I would beg leave to call your attention to a few suggestions in reference to this portion of the law governing the appointment of notaries public and the modifications I would urge in the premises. As the law now stands, it is left optional with the party so commissioned as to whether he shall have placed upon his official seal, or not, his name or the initial letters of his name. In nearly every instance the inscription, as placed thereon, is without the name or the initial letters of the name. By this means, one seal is made to answer the purpose of more than one person, which to my mind is contrary to the spirit of the law. I would therefore most earnestly recommend that such an amendment be enacted that will hereafter require every person holding a commission to have inscribed upon his seal his name and also the date of the expiration of his commission.

FUEL FOR CAPITOL BUILDING.

Appended herewith will be found a table showing a list of proposals for the furnishing of eighty tons of hard coal, range size, for the capitol building for the year 1879:

NAMES OF BIDDERS.	PRICE.
Whitebreast Coal Co	$8.90 per ton.	Awarded.
Hutchins & Hyatt	9.58 "	"

It will be proper to add by way of explanation, that the supply carried over from 1878, together with the eighty tons purchased under contract in 187,8 was sufficient to meet the demand for 1880, consequently no bids were asked for during the last year.

It is also proper to further state that while Sec. 6 of an act approved February 15, 1877, makes it the duty of the Secretary of State to make this class of purchase, yet subsequent legislation to the above mentioned act, has taken that power from him and vested the same in the hands of the Board of Purchase of Supplies.

PUBLIC RECORDS.

The same system of arrangement in the care and custody of the public documents of this office adopted by my predecessor has been continued since my incumbency, and although great inconvenience has been suffered by the sparseness of vault room, I have been able in a measure to keep all the manuscripts, laws and other public documents entrusted to my care in a good state of preservation.

Upon the completion of the "New Wing" now undergoing construction the Secretary of State will be assigned to new quarters therein, and it is most earnestly hoped that when this transfer is made, an appropriation of sufficient magnitude will be available for the proper furnishing thereof, as the careful preservation of these records is secondary to no other responsibility imposed upon this office.

STATIONERY FOR LEGISLATURE.

Under this head it is my duty to purchase for the use of the Legislature such stationery and other articles needed for their use; accordingly on the.....day of December, proposals were invited from six of the leading dealers.

Bids were received upon the estimate, as furnished, from six dealers, and after due examination and comparison, the bid of W. J. Turner for $677.50 was found to be the lowest, and the award made accordingly.

A copy of the bids is herewith appended:

W. J. Turner	$677.50
J. H. Harley	709.29
Leighton & Brown	724.10
State Journal Co	728.60
Fox & Struve	803.50
Henry Gibson	914.70

SENATE CHAMBER AND HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

It was expected that the New Wing would be so far completed at this time as to be ready for occupancy, but such has not proved to be the case, consequently the same rooms used by the Legislature heretofore will have to be occupied by the House and Senate.

The Senate chamber has been remodeled into a room suitable for the holding of the sessions of the Supreme Court. To obviate the difficulty of providing other rooms for the Supreme Court, the Court will adjourn its January term until after the adjournment of the Legislature, thus leaving the old Senate Chamber to be used again by the Senate. In order to use the room a number of changes were required to be made to place the same in order for the occupancy of the Senate. These changes have been made.

The Hall of the House and Senate Chamber, are hardly considered ample in size for the accommodation of its members, and with this end in view, my only aim has been to make the same as comfortable and presentable as the necessities of the case would permit.

CONCLUSION.

In conclusion permit me to return to your excellency my most earnest thanks for the thoughtful consideration of the affairs you have seen fit to extend in the interchange of the duties of this office, with those of the executive, and also to note with grateful recognition the favors extended by the other state officials.

The friendly feeling thus engendered has been fruitful of much good to the public, and the hope is expressed that these relations may long continue.
